What is a disciple? We talk a lot in the Church about discipleship to Jesus. And a lot of times we speak of it in such a way as to imply that some of us who earnestly trust in Jesus and wish to follow him are disciples...but most of us are not. But what if that's not quite right? What if "disciple" is not a status that we attain somewhere along the way on our Christian journey? What if all that is needed to follow Jesus in discipleship is just to...you know...follow him?

We just received word that the company who produces the nuts for the Tide's Holiday Nut Sale is closing. If you would like to place one last order for Terri Lynn Nuts to benefit the Tide, orders can be placed by May 23 at thetide.org/nuts. Questions? See Pastor Jacob.

Our annual BIC Heritage Service, led by our Historical Society, will be held on Sunday, June 1, at 3:00 pm. Join us at the Ringgold Meeting House to remember, to worship, to be One.

Our prayer walking nights will be occurring monthly through Summer and early fall. Join us for our next night of prayer for and in our community on Wednesday, June 4, at 6:30.

Raising kids is a challenge. What does it look like to parent as a disciple of Jesus? Parents, join us on June 7, at 9:30 am, at New Life Believers, as we seek to grow in this.

On Saturday, May 31, at 9:00 am we will host a Church Work Day! Join us in making sure our property is a well-kept, beautiful and functional place for us and our community. Bring some tools, spread some mulch, eat some doughnuts. Join us!
